

2013 NATIONAL JAMBOREE

FOR STUDENTS AT AMERICAN HERITAGE SCHOOL

PRESENTED BY THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

NEW PERMANENT HOME OF THE NATIONAL JAMBOREE!

Boys and parents now have a great opportunity to attend the 2013 National Jamboree at the newly built Bechtel Summit Scout Reservation in West Virginia this July! This jamboree will be the first of the next hundred years of jamboree traditions for the Boy Scouts of America.

Come and be a part of what will soon be wonderful American history! This unique jamboree will be held at its new permanent home at the Bechtel Summit. The 2013 Jamboree will have many new and exciting opportunities! Yes, all your favorite jamboree traditions—patch trading included—will still be there too!

Learn more about the new magical jamboree opportunities by visiting the national BSA jamboree website below.

If you have any questions, please email jallred@bsamail.org.

AMERICAN HERITAGE JAMBOREE PATROL OPPURTUNITY!

We are forming an American Heritage School 2013 Jamboree Patrol. This is a great opportunity for parents and youth to enjoy this monumental jamboree with other parents and youth from American Heritage School. Applications are now being accepted!

Parent and Boy Interest Meeting

Parents and youth interested in attending the 2013 National Jamboree with others from American Heritage School are encouraged to attend one of the two 2013 Jamboree interest meetings. These meetings are being held at American Heritage School on October 25th and 26th at 7 p.m. in Room #412. If you would like to attend one of these interest meetings or are otherwise interested in the 2013 Jamboree, please RSVP online by clicking the link below.
