

Online Speech Therapy Instructor (PT)

American Heritage School is building online educational resources to support parents worldwide in educating their children and seeks to hire a qualified Speech and Language professional.

Job Description:

The successful candidate will work with instructional designers to create high-quality, interactive, online training for (1) children with speech, language, and communication disorders and (2) their parents to help them support their child at home. Specifically, this position entails designing trainings for (a) children with speech rhythm and fluency problems, such as stuttering; (b) children who struggle to produce speech sounds or to produce them clearly; (c) children with voice disorders, such as inappropriate pitch or harsh voice; (d) children with problems understanding and producing language; (e) individuals who strive to improve their communication skills by modifying an accent; (f) children with cognitive communication impairments, such as attention, memory, and problem-solving disorders; and (g) individuals with swallowing disorders.

Qualifications:

The successful applicant will bring the following qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Speech Language Pathology
- Utah State Licensure/Certification
- 300 - 375 hours of supervised clinical experience; and 9 months of postgraduate professional clinical experience
- K-12 experience (preferred)
- An enduring love and understanding of K-12 students and the restored gospel of Jesus Christ
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.

Date Posted: October 18, 2010

Closing Date: Open until filled

Salary will be competitive and commensurate with experience. In addition, AHS provides benefits to all full-time employees, including health coverage. AHS also provides all employees with life insurance, an optional 403(b) retirement savings program, and one free student tuition waiver at American Heritage School.

American Heritage School, founded in 1970, is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) educational organization that promotes the study of academic topics in light of the teachings of Jesus Christ. AHS promotes open inquiry, critical thinking, rigorous scholarship, and creative problem solving.

AHS is located in American Fork, UT, just east of the LDS Mount Timpanogos Temple. American Fork is the home of shopping, recreational and medical services and lies within 30 minutes of SLC, Provo, and various recreational and ski areas. AHS is a flexible, professional, open office environment that encourages innovation and provides substantial opportunity for professional and personal growth.

To apply, please submit via email your résumé, cover letter (detailing your philosophical interest in the mission of AHS), and recent salary history to Grant Beckwith, Principal, gbeckwith@ahsmail.com.