

Family Education Center

News Notes

American Heritage School and Family Education Center
Volume 2:1 January 2005

736 N 1100 E American Fork, UT 84003
(801) 642-0055

A NEW BEGINNING

Press forward with a steadfastness in Christ having a perfect brightness of hope, and a love of God and of all men....”

2 Nephi 31:20

EXPLORE LIFE! SUMMER CAMP

AGES 8-12 COST $199

Come visit “Colonial Williamsberg” at American Heritage School this summer. We’re climbing our famous 30’ rock wall, riding horses, making science and art projects and much more - all focusing on the 1700s and our American Heritage.

The camp runs Monday through Thursday
9 am to 4 pm.

Two sessions are available:

#1 June 20-23 #2 June 27-30

Registration forms are available at the school or can be downloaded at www.american-heritage.org/fec.html#summer. But don’t wait to sign up because last year we sold out and this year both camps are already half sold. For more information please go to the school web site or call Cheryl Karr at 801-642-0055 ext. 503

FAMILY LECTURE SERIES

Friday February 4th

7:30 - 9:00 PM

Richard and Melany Wilkins

“Defending The Family”

-Public Invited-

American Heritage School

Richard G. Wilkins is a Professor of Law at the J. Reuben Clark Law School, Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. He has written numerous articles on constitutional privacy issues and conducts an annual survey of Supreme Court voting trends published in the Hastings Constitutional Law Quarterly. He is a former Assistant to the Solicitor General, United States Department of Justice and current Managing Director of the World Family

FAMILY LECTURE SERIES

2005	Date/Topic	Speaker	7:30-9:00 PM
Friday	- February 4 “Defending the Family”	Richard & Melany Wilkins
Friday	- March 4 “Why Marriage Matters”	Brent Barlow

FAMILY LECTURE SERIES CON'T.

Policy Center, an inter-disciplinary association headquartered at Brigham Young University, dealing with international family issues. He is married to Melany Moore Wilkins and they have four children.

Melany earned her Master of Social Work degree from Brigham Young University and was employed at the Utah State Hospital, American Fork Hospital and Charter Canyon Counseling Center until President Ezra Taft Benson counseled mothers to come home and “be at the crossroads” for their families. Now she has chosen the profession of full-time homemaker. Please join us for an inspiring evening with the Wilkins at American Heritage February 4th at 7:30 pm.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Paul and Sally Mero gave a wonderful lecture January 7th on the “Principles and Preferences in Raising Children”. We thank them for sharing their insight and talents with us. A transcript of this lecture will be emailed to you when it is completed

SUBSCRIBE NOW

To subscribe to our free on-line News Notes please email FEC@AHSmal.com. Questions should be addressed to Cheryl Karr at CKarr@AHSmal.com or by calling 1-(801) 642-0055.

FROM THE BOARD

This year promises to be the best year ever. Two thousand and five can and will be the kind of year each of us wants to make it. That is exactly why I think it will be the best.

In order to make the Family Education Center the best this year we are asking for your help. We would like to invite you to participate with us in our efforts to accomplish all that we desire this year. If you have time and a willing heart we will find a way to put you to work. Please contact Cheryl Karr at 642-0055 ext.503 for information or to volunteer.

Thank you for your continued support in all that we do.

Jeff Acerson,
Chairman of the Board

THOUGHT

“The person who is truly effective has the humility and reverence to recognize his own perceptual limitations and to appreciate the rich resources available through interaction with the hearts and minds of other human beings.” p.220 Stephen R. Covey Daily Reflections For Highly Effective People